Loss of Texarkana
Mail Terminal Might
Cut Hope Rail Service

On May 1 we joined Texarkana in protesting a reported plan to move its big mail terminal to some point deep in Texas, presumably Dallas or Fort Worth.

New factors that have come to light since that first editorial only strengthen our belief that relocation of the terminal would be about as damaging to Hope as to Texarkana. And the effect would be felt clear across Arkansas.

It appears now that the railroads figure pretty heavily in the proposition to move the terminal. Currently most of its mail from the North is carried by the Missouri Pacific. But relocation of the terminal at Dallas or Fort Worth would permit three additional roads to cut into mail delivery from the North: The Katy, the Santa Fe, and the Rock Island.

The effect of such mail diversion might well be to cut two roundtrips off the Missouri Pacific's mainline schedule through Hope—four trains a day. This would be a crippling blow to local mail and passenger facilities, not to mention the jobs of 20 or more trappers.

Thus the damaging effect on the local community of any relocation of the Texarkana terminal becomes crystal clear.

For 24 years this newspaper fought to get speedier clearance of its editions through the Texarkana terminal so tonight's paper might be delivered promptly tomorrow morning on the Lewisville route which runs back into Hope's trading area — and we finally got this service a year ago, with the operation of Hope Post Office and the Postal Transportation Service.

Now we are threatened not only with the loss of this gain — and it benefitted letter-mail as much as ourselves — but with the further prospect of seeing Hope's incoming mail facilities on the Missouri Pacific main line cut to pieces as the road drops trains to meet declining mail revenue.

No one town or state can possibly stand in the way of progress, if it is progress we are talking about; but it is hard to imagine Texas herself putting up with the backward step represented by the plan to relocate Texarkana's mail terminal.

The fact is that the terminal now distributes in the most direct and speedy manner southward to most of the cities of Texas. This is a geographic "natural," as Texarkana is the gate city at which mail from the North and East first reaches Texas. But if the terminal is moved to Dallas or Fort Worth then mail addressed to Texarkana and other east Texas points would have to clear the terminal and then double back to its destination. And mail to Houston and south Texas points would be definitely delayed by the detour to Dallas or Fort Worth.

All Arkansas, of course, would feel the loss of four daily mail and passenger trains on the Missouri Pacific.

The scene is set for a knock-down drag-out fight — and Hope and Arkansas belong squarely in the middle of it, with perhaps a first-class assist from Houston and other Texas points which have no special love for the commercial ambitions of Dallas and Fort Worth.

Two Trapped Gunmen Kill Themselves

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Two desperate gunmen committed suicide yesterday when the two were cornered by police who sought them for critically wounding a detective in a movie theater.

Police Chief Howard O. Young said one of the fugitives, James Pollard, 28, of Stonington shot himself in the head as Young closed in on him in an apartment house attic.

Police said the other gunman, Clarence Rydstrom, 21, of Waterbury shot himself to death in a taxicab an hour later as police surrounded him with drawn guns.

Shot in a downtown movie was Detective Ralph Palma, 30. He was felled by two bullets in the chest as he wrestled with the pair.

Pollard and Rydstrom had been hunted all over the city's center yesterday in connection with a holdup Monday in Middlebury, where two bandits tied two women and escaped with $1,400 in cash, jewelry and bonds.

Palma, two other detectives and several state troopers went to the movie theater on a tip the fugitives were there.

Palma went into the seats and there was a scuffle. Suddenly two patrons dived under their seats.

The state troopers and other detectives said they held their fire lest stray bullets hit the patrons.

Adams Denies Army Tried to Stop McCarthy

WASHINGTON — Army Counselor John G. Adams insisted today the Army had no desire to stop the McCarthy subcommittee's investigation of Ft. Monmouth although he conceded it was pleased when the prospect of a suspension arose last fall.

And he denied the Army (1) ever engaged in "trading favors" for Pvt. G. David Schine in an effort to get the investigation stopped, or (2) sought to "appease" Sen. McCarthy.

Adams said any special consideration for Schine stemmed only from the McCarthy subcommittee's picture him as essential to its work, and that any special deference for McCarthy was a matter of trying to avoid "open hostility."

Adams was back in the witness chair at the McCarthy-Army hearings for the second day — this time for cross-examination.

At the outset, he swore Secretary Stevens never instructed him to try to halt the McCarthy inquiry into alleged security risks at Monmouth and that he never attempted to stop it.

But he said, as Stevens did earlier, that they wanted the "type of hearings" ended. Stevens had characterized those hearings as "hammering" the Army on the head.

For the rest of the forenoon session, Ray H. Jenkins, special counsel to the Senate Investigations subcommittee, pressed questions which turned largely about these contentions.

Jenkins slugged this phrase of his cross-examination by asking whether Adams was saying the Army had "no desire, however slight" to stop the McCarthy investigation. Jenkins asked for a yes or no answer.

Adams hesitated. He asked that the question be read back to him by the stenographer. When it was read, he said "The answer is in the negative" and went on to make an explanatory statement as to the desire for an end to the "type of hearings."

Bar Association Convention Meets

HOT SPRINGS — The Arkansas Bar Association opened its two-day annual convention here today with the lawyers expecting to hear much about congressional investigations.

Today's featured speaker, Dean Ray Forrester of the Tulane University Law School, listed his topics as "History and Function of Congressional Investigations."

And, tomorrow, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) is to speak on "A Code of Conduct for Congressional Investigations." It is expected that he will have something to say about the current McCarthy-Army probe.

Other convention speakers include George E. Bott, general counsel for the National Labor Relations Board. He is to discuss the Taft-Hartley Act.

If tradition is followed J. M. Smallwood of Russellville will be elevated from vice president to president of the Bar Association to succeed J. L. Shaver of Wynne.

Also by tradition, J. C. Deacon of Jonesboro is expected to become chairman of the Junior Bar Section, succeeding James N. Dewell Jr., Little Rock.

He Who Became a She Is Back Home

DYERSBURG, Tenn. — Pretty Charlotte McLeod, back in her home town after a series of sex-change operations in Denmark, says it's a "crying shame" that American physicians frown on such surgery.

"I fit right in where I left off," the 29-year-old willowy brunette said yesterday. "It's wonderful to be back home. Friends don't feel any different toward me now than before. They've accepted the many changes."

Charlotte intends to write a book she said, aimed solely toward education people as to the medical help "sexual cripples" need before they are forced to commit suicide. Iwa s at that stage."

Her experience, she said, may help create "an understanding between John Doe and sexual cripples. There are thousands."

Charlotte, who left here as Charles, stands 5 feet 8½, weighs 118. Her dark hair was gathered in a cluster of curls at the nape of her neck. She was attractively clad in a white blouse, flared aqua skirt and high-heels sandals.

She arrived Monday night and moved in with a friend, Mrs. Stuart Wilson. Her father, Charles McLeod Sr., said

"I was happy to see her. I hope that this change will be better. I hope she'll be happy."

State Peach Crop Smallest in Years

LITTLE ROCK, (UP) — Arkansas is in for a short peach crop and the strawberry crop will be the smallest since 1944, the State Crop reporting service said today.

Miles McPeck, the agency's agricultural statistician, disclosed the following general crop picture:

A short peach crop of 1,025,000 bushels is in prospect for Arkansas, an indicated production of only 56 per cent of the 1953 crop and the smallest since 1943.

The strawberry crop, of 286,000 crates is the smallest since 1944. Last year's crop yielded 340,000 crates and the 10-year average was 287,000 crates.

The winter wheat crop is considerably down with a forecast of 1,102,000 bushels as compared with last year's bumper crop of 1,425,000 bushels. The yield per acre is indicated at 19 bushels.

Snap bean production is estimated at 72,000 bushels, same as last year. Cucumber production is up this year with a forecast of 72,000 bushels compared to only 56,000 bushels last year.

Arkansas growers expect to harvest 126,000 bushels of commercial early Irish potatoes this year. The 1953 harvest totaled only 94,000 bushels. The 10-year average is 388,000 bushels.

Both the spinach and watermelon crops are down. The 1954 crop of fresh market spinach is estimated at 135,000 bushels, against 138,000 last year, and this year's watermelon acreage is placed at 10,200 acres, against 12,600 acres last year.

LaGrone Williams, local salesman, slipped and fell on a wet sidewalk at Main and Wednesday and broke a bone in his ankle. He was brought to Hope for treatment and is currently in Julia Chester hospital where he will probably have to stay for several days.

Gambler's Fate Now in Hands of U.S. Jury

NEW YORK — The fate of gambler Frank Costello, charged with evading income tax payments, rested with a jury of seven men and five women today.

The case went to the jury at 9:25 a. m. after Federal District Judge John F. X. McGohey had completed his instructions. Costello's trial opened six weeks ago.

For 15 minutes before court convened the defendant paced a corridor outside the courtroom, chain-smoking cigarettes and nervously tugging at his tie.

The judge told the jury that before it could convict Costello it must establish guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

He said the burden of proving guilt rested upon the government and that no inference should be drawn because Costello did not testify in his own defense.

McGohey said the jury must determine:

Whether taxes were due from the defendant.

Doctor Sent in to Arrange Sick Exchange

HANOI, Indochina — The French flew on e of Indochina's most eminent doctors to Dien Bien Phu today to arrange for speedy release of French Union troops seriously wounded in the long defense of the fallen fortress.

French officials hoped the mass airlift of casualties from the Viet-minh-held valley 175 miles west of Hanoi would start tomorrow.

They anticipated it would bring out about 700 men — half of the 1,300 to 1,400 estimated wounded. The Communists agreed at the Geneva conference to release only casualties in the "serious" category.

Dr. Pierre Huard, 62-year-old dean of medicine at the University of Hanoi, headed the group going to Dien Bien Phu by helicopter.

The French anticipated Huard's mission would be quickly successful. French air force observers reported hundreds of coolies already were readying Dien Bien Phu's airstrip to receive the big French transports, filling in the trenches and shell holes which wrecked it during the 56 days of rebel attack.

Huard's party took off from Luang Prabang, the royal Laotian capital 115 miles southwest of Dien Bien Phu. Accompanying him were to be brought to Hanoi.

Officers, French air transport experts to survey the landing facilities, and the helicopter crew.

Doctors and nurses were mobilized in Hanoi to staff the Dakota transport planes which will bring out the wounded. Most of them were to be brought to Hanoi.

The wife of Brig. Gen. Christian de Castries, commander of the Dien Bien Phu garrison, arranged to fly to Luang Prabang today in hopes of word of her husband when Huard returned. The Vietnam radio has announced only that De Castries was captured when the fortress fell there has been no word if he was wounded.

The French announced their transports had dropped more than nine tons of food, medical supplies and equipment for the wounded concentrated near the battlefield of Dien Bien Phu. The Viet-minh have marked off the entire area with red crosses and assembled the French casualties in tents there. Doctors in the fortress when it fell are attending the wounded.

The trip to Dien Bien Phu was Huard's second such mercy mission to the Viet-minh.

In Indochina since 1933, he long has been prominent in Red Cross work and is widely respected by the Vietnamese. After the French defeat at Cao Bang in October 1950, he took a leading role in arranging for evacuation of hundreds of French held by the rebels.

Two Fatalities Bring Toll to 9

By The Associated Press
Two traffic fatalities yesterday boosted Arkansas' violent death toll since Sunday midnight to nine.

Mrs. Roy Slaton, about 45, of Cleveland, Ark., was killed and her husband was injured near Conway when their car and a truck collided on Highway 65.

State Police headquarters in Little Rock reported that Jack M. Pearce, 59, of Lake Village was killed in a traffic mishap a half a mile west of the Mississippi River bridge between Arkansas and Greenville, Miss., and about 8 miles southeast of Lake Village.

Details of the accident were not reported.

Advisers From Russia Helping Red Forces

By WILLIAM GALBRAITH
Washington (UP) — Intelligence reports reveal for the first time that swarms of Russian advisers now are helping guide Communist military strategy in embattled Indochina.

The Soviet "advisers" or "supervisors" work with Viet-minh rebel officers down to the division level. They also are helping train Chinese Communist officers for the war.

These facts were disclosed last night in a long summary of "the new colonialism in Asia: Sino-Soviet penetration of Indochina."

The document was "based on hard intelligence facts" official informants said, but the exact source was not revealed for security reasons.

In the Viet Minh itself there are Soviet and Chinese Communist "advisers" and "supervisors" in the military organization down at least to the division level," the report said. "Communist political control continues down to the company level in the military and is spread throughout the administrative hierarchy."

The report also listed these other signs of Soviet assistance for the Red rebel forces fighting in Indochina:

1. Training of Chinese Communist officers for the war.

2. Supplies and equipment from Russia and other satellites, including telecommunications devices, explosives, heavy caliber guns, trucks, gasoline tires, machine tools, and other "military devices."

"A sidelight of Soviet support of the Viet Minh is that its currency is printed in Czechoslovakia" which also has been supply Skoda-built automatic rifles, the report said.

The United States has publicly acknowledged that Red China's material aid and personnel were being thrown into the war on an increasing scale. This aid was given credit for bringing about the fall of the French fortress of Dien Bien Phu. Now it appears the Russians may also have played an important role in guiding Communist strategy during the losing siege.

The report said direct evidence of Soviet material support was uncovered by a French raid into Northern Indochina in July, 1953. Among other things, the French found 1,000 Skoda Czech automatic rifles, six Russian Molotov cocktails, 57 truck engines, explosives and other arms.

Fate of Geneva Likely Depends on French Vote

By CARL HARTMAN
PARIS — Premier Joseph Laniel sought a vote of confidence today from a balky National Assembly. The outcome will decide the fate of his shaky government and possibly that of the Geneva conference as well.

If 314 negative votes are cast, Laniel will have to resign. His coalition is rounding out its 11th month in office, an unusually long term in France.

Political experts gave him only a slim chance of surviving today's vote.

The issue was the Premier's demand that debate on Indochina be postponed until after the Geneva conference. He won a 311-262 confidence vote on the same question last Thursday, but that was before the fall of Dien Bien Phu aroused nationwide bitterness.

President Signs Seaway Bill Into Law

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower signed the St. Lawrence Seaway bill today in a White House ceremony.

"Now work can begin on the great project," the President declared as he put his signature to the measure which sets in motion a plan to bring ocean trade into the heart of the American continent.

With more than a score of Congress members and the Canadian Ambassador, A. D. P. Henney, looking on, Eisenhower used nine pens to sign the bill.

Eisenhower said he was very happy to sign it and that he was particularly glad the Canadian ambassador was present.

The President himself announced plans for the ceremony at his news conference yesterday. Altogether 49 members of Congress were invited.

The bitterly contested seaway legislation finally cleared Congress last Friday after a 30-year struggle.

The measure authorizes the United States to join Canada in building a waterway deep enough to let ocean ships sail from the Atlantic as far inland as Toledo, Ohio, by going up the St. Lawrence River to the Great Lakes.

100 Homeless in Oklahoma Floods

WAURIKA, Okla. — More than 100 persons remained homeless today in a flood which caused the near-drowning of three teenagers.

Rampaging Cow and Beaver creeks, perennial flood threats in southwestern Oklahoma, overflowed yesterday into the north-west residential area. Flood waters lapped twoblock s over in the business district.

The Lincoln schoolhouse, located in a V formed by the creeks, exploded and burned last night. Authorities said boiler fires were extinguished by the water and a gas explosion followed.

The area had been evacuated long before.

Undersheriff Simon Kennedy said three teenagers, Lavon L. Rogers, Leslie Gay and Helen Gay, were pulled from the streams after their boat capsized. They suffered from shock and exposure.

The homeless were given shelter in public buildings and the homes of friends.

'A' Powers Try for Pact to Outlaw Bomb

By ARTHUR GAYSHON
LONDON — The world's five leading atomic powers meet in this bomb-wary capital today, in quest of a pact ending the arms race and outlawing atomic and germ warfare.

There were guarded hints from British and American informants that the Western nations, jointly or individually, might put forward revised proposals in a bid to break the years-long deadlock with Russia on the issue.

The secret talks at the British government's stately Lancaster House are under United Nations auspices.

The group is meeting as a subcommittee of the U. N. Disarmament Commission.

Recent disclosures of effects of hydrogen bombs, test explosions gave new urgency.

Revelations stemming from U. S. tests in the Pacific touched off a chain reaction of nervousness in many parts of the globe and especially in this, exposed island. This led the Churchill government to propose that a new effort at control should be made in London.

There were no clues to the possible nature of any new Western proposals for disarming or atomic and germ warfare control.

To start the talks, however, the four Western Powers — the United States, Britain, France, and Canada — were reported planning to stand on their old position that establishment of reliable enforcement machinery must precede any ban on atomic weapons.

The West apparently wanted things to offer either in the form of concessions or new ideas.

Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd said. The other delegates at the talks, Morehead Patterson, an industrialist, represents the United States. The other delegates at the opening meeting were Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson, for Canada, former Defense Minister Jules Moch for France, and Ambassador Jacob Malik for Russia.

Fulbright Praises Work of McClellan

LITTLE ROCK, (UP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., praised the work of Hiram Bingham McClellan, who headed the McCarthy-Army investigation committee.

Sen. John T. McClellan, Fulbright said, the committee has taken the position that public is entitled to a full open inquiry into the McCarthy-Army squabble.

A Little Rock newspaper, Arkansas Gazette, also praised Fulbright as saying McClellan "at least has put them on an orderly basis."

Fulbright said a vote was opposite the one taken by Gov. Sid McMath in the Cedarville, Ark., case, which McClellan ordered the judges and the jury taken by McClellan. McClellan said against McClellan in the matter's Democratic victory.

Fulbright, however, has questions on the case and whether or not he would support McClellan with the Senate. He said questions were being raised in the matter.

This same sentiment now also seems to prevail among some American servicemen stationed in Great Britain. A poll of 5,000 U.S. soldiers and airmen there by a British newspaper showed that more than 8 out of 10 believe shopkeepers, landlords and cab drivers are gouging them merely because they are Americans.

Taken at its face value, this poll might be viewed as indicating a serious rift between our servicemen and our British allies. It is unlikely, however, that the poll really proves any such thing. Soldiers—ever since the Romans—have been firmly convinced that, wherever stationed, the civilians take them for suckers and hike the prices on them.

A poll among troops at most bases in this country would show probably a majority of the men are firmly convinced the storekeepers in the area are engaged in a mass plot to overcharge them. Certainly they felt that way in wartime and it must be admitted that often they were right. They were gulled by many a pinch-penny profiteer.

There is undoubtedly justification for the complaints made against British shopkeepers a number of whom are convinced all Americans members being used as illustrations.

The hostesses served strawberry shortcake and coffee to 16 members and one guest, Mrs. J. L. Powell.

are rich and that the D.S. motto is "Fun at Any Price."

But it is also true, as the paper which made the poll pointed out, that the longer American servicemen stay in Britain the better they like the country. Most of our men who serve in Britain have a good time there and make firm friends.

Looking at the other side of the picture, it must be realized that it is difficult for a people to have foreign troops quartered among them, even though they are allies and speak roughly the same language. Britain, it has always seemed to me, meets this problem with more grace and hospitality than any other nation. One measure of this hospitality is the fact that between 1940 and 1950 American servicemen returned home with 35,489 British brides.

A U.S. soldier has one simple way to deal with a British shopkeeper he feels has swindled him. He can always marry the guy's daughter and demand his dough back in the form of a dowry.

"Best Seller" for 3 good reasons

Buick now outsells all other cars in its price class and above

You've probably noticed it right in your own neighborhood. Bright new Buicks appearing here, there, everywhere. And more and more of them in recent weeks. Know what's happening? Folks in growing numbers — (and maybe you'll be joining them soon!) — are finding Buick styling, performance and value far too wonderful to pass up. So Buick is selling at a record pace—outselling all other cars in its price class and above. Matter of fact, latest figures for the first quarter of 1954 show that, in total national volume, Buick is outselling every other car in America except two of the so-called "low-price three."

A look and a ride and a peek at the price tag will be all you'll need to know what's back of this best-selling success. There's styling in Buick that's the greatest beauty advance in years — the very look of tomorrow — and with the spectacular panoramic windshield that's part and parcel of this dream-car look. There's performance in Buick as never before — with record-high V8 power, with the sensationally smooth whip of Twin-Turbine Dynaflow, with the buoyant ride of all-coil springing, with a new precision of control and handling. And there's value in Buick that's hard to match — with prices starting near the "low-price three" — prices that buy more Buick beauty and power and thrill and sheer automobile than smart money ever bought before.

How about you? Are you ready, willing and waiting to be shown that this Buick they called Buick is the buy of the year for you? Look! Drop in this week, or give us a call, and we'll arrange a demonstration.

Arkansas' Own Wally Moon Has Great Day

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer

The calendar insists there won't be a full moon until next Monday, but the Cardinal rookie of the year was shining in all his glory today—right in broad daylight.

Young Wally Moon, the 24-year-old lefty swinger with a master's degree in education from Texas A.M. college, who ousted Enoch Slaughter but of a 16-year job with the Cardinals, had a day yesterday that all hitters dream of but seldom achieve. He started with a 380-foot homer in the first inning, then added four to a lousy .304 boost his average to a lousy .304 in a 21-hit St. Louis victory over Pittsburgh.

That's a far cry for a kid who reported to the wrong camp in Florida this spring and who wasn't even on the Cardinal roster until the season began. But, to mix a celestial metaphor, Moon seems destined to become a star. He proved that when in his first time at bat in an exhibition game with the Yanks at St. Petersburg, he blasted a homer. He demonstrated it again when he homered in his first official time at bat as a major leaguer on opening day. Yesterday's round-tripper was his fourth. Yet he might still be with a Cardinal farm club had he reported to Dayton, Beach, this spring instead of to the Eddie Stanky rookie base at Deland, Fla., for kids even less experienced than he was. Stanky saw him and couldn't keep his eyes off. He's been a hot-shot ever since.

Red Schoendienst shared the hitting honors with Moon with a double and three singles and each batted in four runs.

But in Brooklyn and New York there was no evidence that Peter Rabbit instead of Warren G. Giles was autographing the official N. L. ball. Lew Burdette missed a no-hitter for Milwaukee by just one pitch—a fat one to Gil Hodges.

Lookouts Slap Travelers 6-0
By The Associated Press
The Birmingham Barons, thanks to some fine work from their rookie hitters and full cooperation from the Mobile Bears, are still running ahead of the Southern Association pack.

Mark Freeman, a tall right-handed pitcher from Birmingham, tossed a six-hitter as the Barons stopped Mobile 6-1 last night. The victory kept Birmingham's record against its favorite opponent perfect. Mobile has lost all six of its games with the Barons this season.

Chattanooga's Dick Hyde, another rookie in the Class AA league, kept the torrid Lookouts on the victory roll by hurling a three-hitter in a 6-0 contest with Little Rock.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Everything's "Ship-Shape" at the Allens'

Rusty Allen's wife, just out of the hospital after a minor operation, was surprised to be "piped aboard" Navy-style when she came back home last week.

Seems "Captain" Rusty—who'd been in the Navy—signed on a "crew" to help run things while she was away. Chip, the oldest son, is Executive Officer; "Sis" is Officer of the Deck; and Little Bill is deckhand.

"Dad posts a duty roster each day," Chip explained. "Inspection has to be good or we start over. Mom likes Operation Homefire so much she signed us on for another hitch."

From where I sit, Rusty's found out how well a good system and a willing crew can work. Beer retailers have a pretty good system, too. They co-operate with the Self-Regulation program sponsored by the Brewing Industry by keeping their places shined up—always ready for "Captain's Inspection."

The giants made only three hits against Cincinnati but one was a two-run, ninth-inning homer by pinch-swinger Bobby Hoffman for both runs in a 2-1 defeat of Latty Harry Berkowski. At Philadelphia, the Phils took a grip on first place by beating the Cubs, 5-4.

There were many silent bats in the American League, too. Don Johnson pitched a two-hit 1-0 victory for Chicago over Boston as lower Tom Brewer gave up only three hits. Ted Gray pitched a six-hitter as Detroit edged Washington 4-2 while the Yankees took the odd game from Cleveland 5-4.

Burdette, taming the Dodgers in an hour and 51 minutes for the fastest N. L. game this season was backed up by early homers, Ed Mathews and JOE Adcock each reaching starter Don Newcombe for long range blasts as Milwaukee made 11 hits. It was the Braves' second in a row over Brooklyn.

Southpaw Carl Simmons gained his fourth victory in the Phillies' victory, striking out Ralph Kiner with two out and the tying and winning runs on base in the ninth inning.

Losers Brewer pitched 6 1-3 innings without a hit for Boston but walked four batters to force in the only Chicago run in the first inning. It was Johnson's third victory and his second two-hit effort.

Johnny Sain, struck out pinch-hitter Bill Glynn to end a four-run Cleveland rally in the eighth, then struck out two more in the ninth to save Ed Lopat's fifth Yankee victory without a loss. A two-run homer by Andy Carey proved to be the margin of victory.

Ray Boone's three-run homer provided gray with his necessary margin in Detroit's which kept the Tigers in first place.
